

INTERNAL QUALITY ASSURANCE CELL
INDIRA GANDHI INSTITUTE OF DEVELOPMENT RESEARCH
MUMBAI (M.S.)

REPORT OF FEEDBACK FROM STUDENTS AND ALUMNI

(2018-19)

Indira Gandhi Institute of Development Research (IGIDR) has a regular practice of collecting the feedback from students and alumni to obtain the views on set parameters, analyse the same and adopt corrective/remedial measures where deemed appropriate.

The parameters of the feedback forms are as follows:

Students

- a) Appropriateness of Syllabus
- b) Hours allocated to courses
- c) Depth of content
- d) Sequence of units
- e) Skill coverage
- f) Ability to formulate and analyse
- g) Relevance of programme with projected career

Alumni

- a) Courses offered in programs
- b) Learning Resource Material
- c) Resources to conduct Research

- d) Relevance of courses in career
- e) Fairness with students
- f) Campus Ambience
- g) Programme relevance for job opportunities
- h) Outcomes of the program
- i) Evaluation methodology

The feedback from students and alumni is collected on the following five-point scale:

Poor (1)	Average (2)	Good (3)	Very Good (4)	Excellent (5)
---------------------------	------------------------------	---------------------------	--------------------------------	--------------------------------

The findings from the analysis of the feedback are as follows:

1. A large majority of students and alumni consider the programme content to be excellent.
 2. Students and alumni expressed their satisfaction (ranging from 'very good' to 'excellent') with the resources available for learning and research, programme outcomes, and the relevance of the programme for job placements.
 3. Students and alumni had high opinions on the relevance of courses, the evaluation process and fairness with students .
 4. Existing students expressed very good opinion about appropriateness of syllabus, time allocated for courses, sequence of units, development of analytical and formulation ability and the overall relevance of the program.
 5. In the opinion of students, the syllabus is very good in development of appropriate skills required in profession.
 6. 92% of respondent alumni expressed their readiness to collaborate with the institute.
 7. Some alumni expressed the need for internship abroad with scholarship.
-

INTERNAL QUALITY ASSURANCE CELL
INDIRA GANDHI INSTITUTE OF DEVELOPMENT RESEARCH
MUMBAI (M.S.)

ACTION TAKEN REPORT ON THE FEEDBACK FROM STUDENTS AND ALUMNI

(2018-19)

The feedback obtained from students and alumni were analyzed and the following actions are taken to enhance the performance of students and that of the Institute. The action taken report will be put before the IQAC meeting for discussion.

1. More emphasis on interactive classes and assignments to provide richer learning experience.
 2. Annual alumni meet conducted to explore collaborative practices.
 3. Policy of providing internship abroad with scholarship explored.
-

Signature
IQAC Coordinator