

Dr Johannes Beermann, Member of the Executive Board of the Deutsche Bundesbank

Dr Johannes Beermann was born in 1960 in Emsdetten, Westphalia, Germany. He studied law at the Ludwig Maximilian University in Munich (1980-1985). After passing his second state examination in law in 1988, he joined the staff of the Federal Ministry for Youth, Family Affairs, Women and Health. In 1990, he completed his PhD in law at the University of Münster, and then worked at the Saxon State Ministry for Social Affairs and at the Saxon State Chancellery until 1992. From 1992 to 1995, he held the position of Head of Office for the CDU Secretary General Peter Hintze and then became State Councillor to the Senator of Finance of the Free Hanseatic City of Bremen (1995-1999). From 1999 to 2003, Dr Beermann was Secretary of State for Federal and European Affairs at the Hessian State Chancellery and Commissioner (Bevollmächtigter) of the State of Hesse to the Federation. After that he worked in a law firm as a lawyer. In 2008, he was appointed Chief of the State Chancellery and Minister of State for Federal and European Affairs of the Free State of Saxony and was then reappointed to these positions in 2009 (until 2014). Since January 2015, Dr Beermann has been a member of the Executive Board of the Deutsche Bundesbank, responsible for the Directorates General Human Resources, Administration and Premises and the Procurement Centre.
